Suggestion Award Winners

$1,131 To Joseph Testa

Joseph Testa, Chucking, is a firm believer in the Scovill Suggestion Award System. Covering a ten-year period, he has submitted 13 suggestions, five of which have been adopted, with cash payments being made for a total amount of $2,883.00.

His last suggestion, which netted him his highest award to date — $1,131.00 — involved changes in operations for deburring holes and milled slots on the Kingsbury machines, which reduced costs considerably.

$90—Anthony Mastrofrancesco, Continuous & Mold Casting

$75—Andrew Scannapieco, Aluminum Roll & Finish

$60—Victor Valantiejus, Repair

$50—Joseph Sconziano, Casting Shop

$35—Oran Rasmussen, Gripper Eyelet

$30—Arthur Schmidt, Casting Shop

$30—Edward Pannick, Elec. Maint.

Woodtick Closes on Labor Day

Labor Day will mark the official closing of the Woodtick Recreation Area. The group picnic area will be available for group or department picnics as long as the weather remains compatible.

$368 To William Knightly

William Knightly, pictured with Jerry Bousquet, foreman of the Pipe Shop, was awarded $368 for his suggested changes in the Oil System piping on 60" Mill which resulted in less clogging in the Body Feed System, thereby reducing maintenance charges.

The "Looking Forward to Retirement" program will be resumed in September for its tenth year of retirement planning sessions.

First started in 1964, the program is co-sponsored by the Company and the Union, and is offered to employees and their spouses.

Especially prepared for employees 55 years of age and over, the program provides authentic and dependable information needed to confidently plan and prepare for the leisure years.

Many have voiced surprise on learning of subjects which should be planned for — legal matters which should be considered are brought to their attention by a lawyer — maintaining good health and health services available to the retired are discussed by a doctor — budget planning and proper diet are covered by a professional nutritionist — recreational outlets are presented by a librarian and a representative of the Retired

Scovill Reports Higher Earnings

The recently released Scovill financial report showed an increase in both sales and earnings for the second quarter and the first six months of this year. Comparative figures for the two periods are:

2nd Quarter
	1973	1972
Sales	$148,314,000	$133,159,000
Profits after Taxes	$4,975,000	$4,493,000
Profits as % of Sales	3.4%	3.4%

Six Months
	1973	1972
Sales	$293,502,000	$254,418,000
Profits after Taxes	$9,533,000	$8,324,000
Profits as % of Sales	3.2%	3.3%

Pre-Retirement Program

Workers Council — social security is discussed with a representative of the local Social Security office — living arrangements, family relationships, etc. are all discussed.

A two-hour session (from 2 to 4 p.m.) is held once each week, on Wednesdays, for eight weeks. One hour is paid for by the Company, the other is on the employee's own time.

Group units are now being set up for the fall sessions. Interested employees are invited to register. Assignments to the group must take into consideration departmental needs. It may not be possible to assign more than one employee from the same shift in one department as this could interfere with production requirements.

Additional information may be obtained from your foreman, steward, someone who has already taken the course, or by contacting Paul Truncali, Employment Office. To register, fill in and send in the blank on Page 7.

Describing Scovill

Scovill. A short name but covering a great variety of products sold in major consumer and industrial markets. A company with such well-known brand names as Hamilton Beach, Dominion, NuTone, Dritz, Gripper, Schrader . . . Approximately 20,000 employees in plants and offices across the country and around the world. One of the 500 largest industrial companies in the country with annual sales of over 500 million dollars. Uninterrupted dividends since 1856 — 117 years — the best record of any manufacturer on the New York Stock Exchange.

How do you boil all of this down to just a few words? We are often asked by news sources to give them a description of Scovill in just one short sentence. It isn't easy, particularly because of our increasing diversity in products and markets. But here is a "one sentencer" that we sometimes use:—

"Scovill is a widely diversified manufacturer of housing products, sewing notions and apparel fasteners, housewares, metals and industrial products."

Well, it is only one sentence, but it doesn't make you jump up and down with excitement. We would still like to get the message across that we produce products with such familiar names as Hamilton Beach, NuTone, Gripper, Dritz and Schrader.

Probably one of the most useful tools that we have developed to show who we are and what we do is a table in our Annual Report that breaks down the sales and earnings of our five major product groups. For example, the table in our last report shows that 31.5% of our 1972 sales come from our housing products group, 13.5% from housewares, 18.9% from sewing notions and apparel fasteners, 22.1% from metals and industrial products, and 14% from automotive and fluid power products.

Scovill has come a long way in the past few years. Our business has just about doubled since 1965. Housing products, a new market which we entered with the NuTone acquisition in 1967, is now our largest single business. Today, we have a strong position in major consumer and industrial markets—markets which should continue to offer attractive growth opportunities to those companies smart enough and aggressive enough to take advantage of them. It's pretty difficult to wrap all of this up into one descriptive sentence. But, we'll keep trying.

No Safety Hazards in Well Marked Lanes

Throughout the plant, aisleways are real standouts — new aisleways are being marked off and old aisles are being repainted.

The primary purpose of aisles is to provide employees with a means of unimpeded exit from the building in case of an emergency. In addition, properly maintained aisles enable floor-men and jitney drivers to transport materials through work areas in a safe and efficient manner.

It is in the interest of each and everyone of us to see that aisles are maintained in a clear, uncluttered condition.

Report aisle obstructions to your supervisor immediately.

Girls' Club News

By Irene Owens

Welcome back, if your vacation is over—hope you're having a fine time if you're still on yours.

Vacation for the Council is over and the gals are working on plans for our fall and winter activities. In the works, at this time, are:—

Our trip gals, Mary Byrnes (F & S.M. Cleaning) and Ceil Terry (Sewing Notions) are scheduling a visit to a winery, possibly in August. Their vacation period trips to the races at Green Mountain and the Penn-Dutch Country were so highly successful that they are being besieged (even by some of the husbands who joined the group) for more trips. Their bus trip to Oakdale this month to see Totie Fields was a sell-out in short time.

Evelyn Smoil (Mfg. Timekeepers) and Pat Woods (Contract Mfg. Prod.) are already working on plans for the fall card party.

You've received a questionnaire regarding a Club picnic. If you haven't already turned it in, please do so. The Council wants to conduct activities that you want to have—so, please let them know and they'll do all they can to promote them.

Yep, while it's still summer—Pat Woods is also lining up the schedule for the Bowling League. They'll start on Thursday, Sept. 6th. If you're interested, as a regular or a sub, give her a call at #2334.

Hypertension —

By A.J. Canzonetti, M.D.

— can be controlled.

Recent surveys of apparently normal adults have revealed that up to 30% of those tested have hypertension. Non-medical people know this diagnosis as "high blood pressure".

The significance of this finding is that doctors know that people with "high blood pressure" are more likely to develop heart problems and strokes. It is also well known that uncontrolled hypertension may lead to earlier death because of these secondary diseases.

Hypertension, however, is controllable today with proper medications, surgery, dietary restrictions and common sense. The tragedy is that, being reasonably asymptomatic, patients are not inclined to follow the regimen established for them by their doctors. They "forget" to take their pills. The diet requires discipline. So we find them uncontrolled and in jeopardy.

Our advice for August—If you find you have high blood pressure, see your doctor, follow his advice, live longer more comfortably. Common sense is better than neglect.

The night of the Chess Club meetings has been changed from Monday to Tuesday—at the SERA at 7:00 p.m.

President Earl Armstrong says all interested in playing chess are invited to join this new club. Beginners looking for lessons, and the ladies, are especially welcome.

Nick Ruffino tried to pull a fast one last month. After soiling his T-shirt, he was caught buying a new one at the employee store—gotcha, Mike!

There once was a fellow named Dave

He moved very fast, so they say;

But the police said, "no, no —

That 442 and you must go

To the judge and his short circuit court.

The first person to call and identify our secret star swimmer whose famous last words are, "I got two words for you, baby", will win—two words.

Bill Rodgers, while out fishing with Leo Beck and Cal Wiltshire, pulled out ahead of his partners with his catch; in fact, when the 7-ft shark got done eating his cod, that's all Bill had left. Go fish, Leo and Cal! Congratulations on a catch of 53 cod, ranging from 9 to 45 lbs.
